WANTED POSTERS

1859. Wanted Posters. Eleven pictorial full sized FBI wanted posters for bank robbers 1952-1956. 11 x 17" with three photos of suspect, names, aliases, description, criminal record, and cautionary notes. These were all mailed to the Hotel Beverly in Freeport, Ill. J. Edgar Hoover seems to have started this massive public plan to find criminals by distributing posters. These posters all carry a "Wanted Flyer" number on the bottom left corner, and all have numbers between 86 and 188, very low numbers, indicating these may be from the beginning of Hoover's program. Great décor for a restaurant or for any western collection. Est $100-200

Lots 1859 & 1860 are similar

1860. Wanted Posters. FBI Wanted Posters for Bank robbery, kidnapping, murder, theft. Eight large 11 x 17" posters similar to the above lot except for other crimes. These also have low numbers, #85-135, indicating some of the first FBI posters of the series. Est $100-200

1861. Wanted Posters. Lot of 66 card FBI Wanted posters, 25 are pictorial, carrying the suspects fingerprints, signature and photographs. 8 x 8" each. These cards were mailed to post offices, major hotels, and other public places. Printed signature on bottom of J. Edgar Hoover. These all date from 1956-62, mailed to the Hotel Beverly in Freeport Illinois. They range from everything from bank robbery and murder to car theft. 41 of the cards are apprehension orders notifying the public that certain criminals had been caught or were discharged. All vf-xf. Est. $120-180

Lots 1861 & 1862 are similar

1862. Wanted Posters. Wanted Posters and matching wanted cards. Three different people with their matching mailer card with a duplicate poster, all dated about 1955. FBI low number posters for Ken Carpenter (bank robber), Charles Ranel (bank robber) and Charles Smith (embezzlement). Extra card for a bank robber included, thus eight pictorial pieces in all. Est $100-200

GEORGIA

1863. De Kalb. Stone Mountain. Stone Mountain Mirrored Souvenir. The front shows a scene of Stone Mountain which is a large granitic "monadnock". The mountain is nearly 1700 feet high. As compared to the surrounding elevations, the 1700' elevation of the mountain provides quite a contrast. The mountain has Confederate War Memorial carved into the northeast wall that was begun in 1912. this piece resembles a pinback button but with a mirror instead of a pinback. Oval shaped, 2.5 inch at its widest. Colored. Mirror is in excellent condition. Extremely fine. Est. $75-150

1864. Lumpkin. Dahlonega. Dahlonega Gold Mining Co. Incorporated in New York. Issued to C. J. Dowanei for 100 shares, cert #3704, in 1880. Signed by L. L. Lombard president and C. A. Fronbridge secretary. Vignette at top center of New York State Seal. Black border and print. Uncancelled. Printer - Wm. L. Allison, NY. Slight foxing along right edge. The company had its operations with the Dahlonega district in Lumpkin County. Balch, (1882), only outlines the gold slate district with general information and topography. However, there is a color plate of the district offered after page 128 that shows the properties of the major mines, including the Dahlonega GMC. Extremely fine. Est. $200-400
