374. Arapahoe. Denver. Pedley-Ryan & Co. Silver Round. Pedley-Ryan & Co was an investment house in Denver. In 1933, the company wanted to boost silver sales, especially for the small investor, and started a campaign called "Buy an ounce of Silver." On January 5, 1933, Penley-Ryan began selling silver rounds that matched a standard U.S. silver dollar. Each round contained 1 ounce, 430 grains, of 99% fine silver. The company believed that it would sell thousands of the rounds boosting the silver prices and was even willing to buy back the rounds at the fair market value for that day. However, the campaign was ceased at the end of the summer after sales did not reach expectations. Sachs-Lawlor Co manufactured the silver rounds with the silver acquired from the Denver Mint. An employee of Penley-Ryan stamped or punched each of the rounds in the office. The company produced 7 different variations of the rounds produced either due to incorrect dies. The company was even forced to change the sizing of the rounds because of complaints that the rounds were being used in automatic pumps at filling stations. The rounds were the same size and weight of a U.S. Silver Dollar, but Pendley-Ryan sold the rounds at 3 for a $1 (Hilbert-Kappen, So Called Dollars, p.132-133). The round in this lot is Type III in Hilbert-Kappen. There were only 85 struck of this variety. Pendley-Ryan & Co./ Denver//One Ounce/ Silver/ 90%. Rd, silver, 38mm. Unc-Exemplary. Very Rare. 394. Park. (Como). Brunswick Balke Collender Trade Token. Good for One Drink/ or/ Cigar/(arrows)/ E. L. Thayer// The Brunswick Balke/ Collender/Compy/ (pic pool table)/ check. Br 23mm, rd. vf. Dark toned. Not in 1886 Bradstreet for Fairplay or Como. [circa 1888-90] Edward L. Thayer came to Fairplay in 1875 to work for Fred Clark's hydraulic gold mine. Thayer had made a name for himself as a Chinese labor liaison, and brought 200 Chinese miners with him to Fairplay. He had been successful in California with the Chinese, and had brought many to Gilpin gold mines in 1873. Thayer directed the placer operation there from 1876 until 1878, when a flood wiped out all their working area and equipment. Shortly after, Thayer was hired by former Colorado Governor John Evans to take his Chinese laborers to Como to work the coal mines. In 1880 there were about 124 Chinese laborers in Como, about a third were miners, according to Virginia Simmons in Bayou Salado. Como was then a town of about 134 residents. Simmons cites one saloon, stables, a blacksmith shop, carpenter shop, etc. About the time this token might have been issued (c1885) a huge explosion in one of the coal mines killed 35 Chinese miners. The Chinese were also the victim of racist attacks, one time killing one, though the Italian crowd responsible was run out of town later. By about 1888 or a little later, eight saloons were reported. Thayer had a stroke in 1890 and probably died shortly after. This token is previously unreported, and was dug in the local area. While this piece deserves much more research, it is most probably from Como based on the research at hand, which places Thayer at Como at the time this token must have been used. X rare. San Francisco. San Francisco Mint Silver Ingot. Mint of the United States/ pic eagle with shield/ At San Francisco (in 30mm oval with single line border as a single gang punch) /2020 / 999.5 Fine. The number 7 is punched on one end facing the reader. On the reverse is punched 13.95 ozs. Overall size 66mm long, 38mm wide, 16mm thick. This pattern is sometimes considered as the oldest pattern, usually noted as pre-1900, but I cannot prove this. Est. $600-1000

441. California. San Francisco. San Francisco Mint Silver Ingot. Mint of the United States/ pic eagle with shield/ At San Francisco (in 30mm oval with single line border as a single gang punch) /1032 / 24.65 ozs/ 999.5 Fine. The number 13 is punched on one end. Overall size 90mm long, 60mm wide, 14mm thick. This pattern is sometimes considered as the oldest pattern, usually noted as pre-1900, but I cannot prove this. Est. $750-1000

442. California. San Francisco. San Francisco Mint Silver Ingot. U. S. Mint / 1959 / eagle with shield/ San Francisco Inside circle 25mm in diameter. 5.39 / ozs / 999.5 FINE. The number 40 is punched on the end facing the reader. Overall size 57mm long, 34mm wide, 8mm thick. The 1946 punch on the reverse of this bar is identical to the 946 of the 25.24 ounce ingot in this group. Est. $600-1000

443. New York. New York. New York Assay Office Silver Ingot. U. S. Assay Office / 1954 / eagle with shield / New York inside circle 26mm in diameter as a single gang punch. / Fine / 999. M@ punched in the end closest to reader. On right side is ozs. 44.09. On the end away from the reader is punched the ingot number 256. Overall size 96mm long, 47 mm wide, 30 mm thick. This is a choice New York bar, finely punched and one of the most attractive in the collection, and certainly one of the best of this group. Est. $800-1200

444. Pennsylvania. Philadelphia. Philadelphia Mint Silver Ingot. 946 / No. 88 / Fine/ 999. / ozs 25.24 / U. S. Mint/ (pic eagle with shield)/ Philadelphia all in circular gang punch 26mm in diameter. Overall size 100 mm long, 40mm wide, 19mm thick. The number 10 is punched on the end away from the reader. I believe this to be a 1946 dated ingot, with the numeral "1" not clearly punched. Est. $650-1000

445. Pennsylvania. Philadelphia. Philadelphia Mint Silver Ingot. U. S. Mint / eagle with shield/ Phila. Inside double ring circle 30mm in diameter. No other markings on the obverse. The number 10 is punched on the end away from the reader. On the reverse is 1946/ Fine/ 999/ ozs/ 5.55/ No.7 Overall size 65mm long, 34mm wide, 8mm thick. The 1946 punch on the reverse of this bar is identical to the 946 of the 25.24 ounce ingot in this group. Est. $600-1000
