1354. Washoe. Reno. Mapes Hotel and Casino Poker Chips. Lot of 9 pcs. Established in 1947 by Mrs. Charles Mapes and her son Charles, the Mapes Hotel and Casino has grown to be a symbol of Reno in the hearts of many. Its closure in 1982 left many to muse over fond memories, hopeful for a resurrection. After almost 20 years of vacancy, plans were in motion to restore the building, and convert the 12-story landmark into a time-share. But by 2000, after much controversy over its architectural soundness, and debates over its use, plans to demolish the building were made by city officials. Sadly, all that remains is an empty lot, occasionally occupied by small events. These chips are among the many relics collected from the hotel.
